MODERN SLAVERY: SUPPORT IS AVAILABLE

No matter your age*, gender, sexuality, ethnicity, culture, religion or visa status - you have rights - and can get help.

HOW WE CAN HELP

- We provide free and confidential support
- We can help you understand your rights and options
- We can offer you free legal advice
- We can help you with your immediate safety and wellbeing needs

The Additional Referral Pathway is a way for people to access support if they are experiencing or have experienced exploitation, known as modern slavery.

SIGNS

SOMEONE MAY BE EXPERIENCING MODERN SLAVERY:

- Forced to work under threat or coercion, or under harsh conditions
- Tricked or trapped into work or providing services
- Recruited or transported through force or deception
- Not having control over other parts of life
e.g. where and when to eat, sleep or rest, or freedom to leave
- Not having control over the work, when work can stop and/or nature of the job is not what was intended
- Forced to work to pay off an unreasonable debt or one that never ends
- Working with little or no pay
- Pressured, forced or tricked into getting married against your will, or when underage

* Children under the age of 16 without a safe guardian cannot be assisted by the ARP and will be referred to child protection and the Australian Federal Police for support.
